A-3 Your Privacy Rights

This section explains why your information is collected and how it is used, shared and protected. It also explains how you can access your personal information.

The information you provide on this form is collected under the authority of the Canada Disability Savings Act (CDSA) and the Income Tax Act (ITA) for the purposes of determining eligibility for a Canada Disability Savings Grant (grant) or Canada Disability Savings Bond (bond), (including for previous years in order to determine if there are any unused grant and/or bond entitlements from those years), to calculate amounts payable and to administer the grant and bond. Information may be shared with Employment and Social Development Canada (ESDC), the Canada Revenue Agency, and the issuer for the administration of the CDSA and the ITA.

The Social Insurance Number (SIN) is collected under the authority of the CDSA and will be used as a file identifier and to ensure an individual's exact identification so that the beneficiary's eligibility for the Disability Tax Credit (DTC), residency and family income can be verified for the purposes of determining whether a grant or bond may be paid. While eligibility for the DTC may be verified, information contained within the Disability Tax Credit Certificate (i.e., the nature of the beneficiary's disability) will not be collected, used or disclosed.

Submitting this application is voluntary. However, if you refuse to provide your personal information, ESDC will be unable to process your application.

The information you provide may also be used and/or disclosed by ESDC for policy analysis, research and/or evaluation purposes of RDSP, grant and/or bond administration and/or design. In order to conduct these activities, various sources of information under the custody and control of ESDC may be linked. However, these additional uses and/or disclosures of your personal information will never result in an administrative decision being made about you, (such as a decision on your entitlement to a grant and/or bond).

Your personal information is administered in accordance with the CDSA, the Department of Employment and Social Development Act, the Privacy Act, the Income Tax Act and all other applicable laws. You have the right of access to, and to the protection of, your personal information. It will be kept in Personal Information Bank "HRSDC PPU 038". Instructions for obtaining this information are outlined in the government publication entitled Info Source, which is available at the following Web site address: www.infosource.gc.ca. Info Source may also be accessed online at any Service Canada Centre.

Personal information of the plan holder is used to verify their identity in the Social Insurance Registry in order to identify the correct RDSP.
